

Evidence of Public Servants – Particularities of the Professional Folder

Cristina CARAMETE, University Lecturer Ph. D

Abstract: Our paper approaches the issues in personnel administration: public servants statistics and professional files. According to the law governing this field, those files are designed to ensure a coherent human resource management by sound civil servants carrier path management. Our paper also presents the main documents contained in a professional file and the legal issues regarding those files.